COMMENTS BY CITY COMMISSIONERS

6:17 PM

Commissioner Collins

- Commented that he would like to request a discussion for a future meeting in October on zoning in progress; stated he wants to take a break on new applications for development, review the implications of what is current, tighten up existing codes, and talk about what he has experienced in communicating with the residents about having development slow down.

Commissioner Clarke

- Thanked Police and Fire Departments for the Honor Guard and stated that it was very special and respectful in remembrance of 9/11.
- Announced the Reading of the Constitution on September 20th at 3:30 p.m. at the East 10th Street Community Center and invited all to join by participating or to come and watch.
- Complimented Mr. William Laughlin on a well-run campaign and thanked him for a job well done.
- Announced upcoming events: Memorial event in Pahoke on Thursday, the 16th (15th) to honor those that lost their lives during the hurricane of 1928 and a Walk for Gang Awareness in East Stuart on September 19th at 4:00 PM.

Mayor McDonald

- Congratulated and welcomed the two new Commissioners.
- Addressed the meeting on zoning that Commissioner Collins requested and suggested it be a special workshop in early November because of the new Development Director coming aboard soon, giving them time to settle in. He (McDonald) would like to include some issues based on his Commissioner goals of the commercial/industrial properties inventory for economic development.

- Reported on his attendance at the 9/11 Memorial and thanked all the first responders.

Commissioner Collins commented in response to Mayor McDonalds comment on the zoning meeting. He mentioned that he prefers to begin the discussion in October as requested. City Manager Dyess noted that he could add a Discussion & Deliberation (D&D) to the first meeting in October on what a Zoning in Progress is and get the legality input, then schedule a workshop for November.

COMMENTS BY CITY MANAGER

City Manager David Dyess

- Request to continue Item #18 to 9/26/22 CCM.
- Announced that per the Charter, the Vice Mayor is to serve as Mayor until the annual reorganization meeting of the Commission. City Attorney, Mike Moretti read directly from the Charter, Section 7.09.(c). Dyess noted that in the event the Mayor is absent or if the Mayor must excuse himself, the gavel is to be passed to Commissioner Clarke based on seniority.
- Expressed his appreciation from himself and staff to Merritt Matheson for his tenure with the City as a Commissioner, he will be recognized with a tree in Mayor's Park and a ceremonial gavel gift.
- Announce the upcoming Utility Workshop for Wednesday at 5:00 PM, the agenda will be published first thing in the morning.
- Reported that the Finance Director, Joly Boglioli, looked up the new construction ad valorem and reported on the answer to Commissioner Rich.
- Reviewed the Commissioner Appointed Boards so the new Commissioners are clear on the community boards they are a part of.
- Commented on the City's internal board vacancies on the CRB, LPA, and CRA. Asks the Commissioners to review applications and consider moving forward to fill the vacancies.
